

June - July 2012

Our website is going “LIVE” June 1, 2012... So please visit it for a peek at the wonderful things our web designer, Linda Hicks, has created!

There are loads of photos and even a Member’s Gallery where she’s posted some of the artwork submitted for our recent competition.

The winning piece was by Polly Palecek and it will be used on the cover of our new brochure.

We also have our own, MCAA email address:

mcaa@mendocinoartassn.org.

If you’re not sure who to write with a question, you send it here and we’ll make sure to get it answered.

MEET THE WEBMASTER – with very special thanks!

Like an angel that turns up just when you need her, Linda Hicks came to our demo in January while visiting her mother. She lives in the Bay Area, with a degree in Fine Arts and is a Web Designer with her own company, Magic Knot Studios where she develops websites for small organizations and individuals who want a professional image on the web at an affordable price.

The next thing we knew, she offered to design our website for free. Dorleen McBride, Muhasibi Shalom and Svetlana Artemoff provided her with photos, text, historical information and she created a beautiful piece that reflects the enduring quality of art and it’s constantly exciting promise.

Further thanks go to her friend and colleague, Bill Cane, who got roped in to help. He has a distinguished career in advertising. He designed our logo and helped with the overall design of the website. We are truly grateful for all of their help.

Linda is available for private consultations on web design and can be reached by email at Linda.hicks@magicknot.com
