The MCAA is sponsoring Family Fun at the Museum this month with a charcoal drawing session for children and parents using artifacts from the Museum Collection and taught by MCAA member Marie Pera.

With a degree in art and teaching credentials from pre-school to high school, Marie has that wonderful combination of artistic talent and the patience and skill necessary to work with children. Since retiring from full-time teaching, she has taught Get Art in the Schools (GASP) classes for K-6 in Mendocino County. A music program and an eye spy art walk will follow. Bring your children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews and enjoy a wonderful opportunity to introduce them to art and the Grace Hudson Museum.
