Portraiture Drawing With TOBIN KELLER

Tobin will begin this class with a demonstration discussing the importance of value, shape, and edge as vital elements of a successful representational likeness.

Participants will then be guided to work with these elements on their own pieces.

Born and raised in Mendocino County Keller has found much inspiration in its beauty and rural character. He has been an instructor at Mendocino College since 2005 with classes ranging from computer graphics and design to fine painting and figure drawing. See tobinkeller.com for a full catalogue of his paintings and drawings.
